Technology Use Agreement

- Cell phones are not to be used in the school, regardless of the time of day. Students who are found with a cell phone, regardless of whether it is turned on or off, will have the cell phone removed. The cell phone will be given back by the teacher or administrator after a specified amount of time ie./ end of day for first offence leading up to one week or more. (Cell phones with built in MP3 players may not be used for listening to music during the school day.) iPhones are permitted but must be kept in airplane mode at all times; if not, they fall under the same rules as all other cell phones.
- Personal listening devices (with headphones) (MP3 players, iPods, etc) may be used during break, at lunch, and before/after school. Otherwise, they are to be kept in your locker. If they are found during unapproved times, they will be confiscated. Only under specific direction of the teacher may iPods with headphones be used.
- Students are not permitted to bring personal cameras or video cameras to school. If they do, they will be confiscated. Students with iPhones must not use the camera function or the privilege of using the iPhone will be removed. As is current practice, cameras will only be allowed to be used if done as an educational activity by the teacher.
- Students are permitted to bring iPods to class; they are to be used for educational purposes only as outlined by the teacher. Students are expected to download the approved free educational apps as listed by the school. All content on the student's iPod must meet the standard as outlined in the School Division Appropriate Use Requirement document. Students are responsible for all content on their iPod.
- Students are permitted to bring their own laptops, notebooks, iPad's to use throughout the school day. All content on student owned laptops must meet the standard as outlined in the School Division Appropriate Use Requirement document. Students are responsible for all content on their laptops.
- The school is not liable for student owned devices that are lost, stolen, damaged or broken. Students are expected to keep all devices on their person or locked in their locker. At no time are devices permitted in the gym change rooms, which do not have secured lockers.
- All aspects of the Use Agreement must be met or the privilege of using the devices will be removed.
